Different Kind of Day — Cloud Cult

[Intro] Bb/D (X3)

[Verse 1]
Bb/D Eb
I'm a work in progress but I'm tired of not liking me this way
Bb/D F
In fact, somewhere in the maple trees a ghost of me is running away
Gm/D
I think that's a result of me just trying to be accountable for every little Eb
thing in my way

Bb/D F
But I get so dang hard on me in stupid ways
Eb Eb
But life is full of things we cannot change and maybe that's okay

[Verse 2]
Bb Eb
Some days I wake up as a person that I think I need to save (Hey hey)
Bb F
Grab myself a coffee cup, the self-help books are piled up again
Gm
I think that's a result of me just trying to make the best of a life not
Eb
guaranteed in any way (Hey hey)

Bb F
But I get so dang hard on me, the time just slips away
Eb Eb
Today could be a different kind of day

[Verse 3]

Let's dig up our Bb graves, talk to our old selves a while Eb
Tell me, what makes you Bb hopeful, tell me, what makes you F hurt
I think you're Gm brave even though you're afraid 'cause you're sick of the denial Eb

Bb You get so dang hard on you, it's F time to feel okay
Eb Today could be a different kind of day Eb

[Verse 4]

Today's a good Bb day to screw it all and just Eb smile
It doesn't matter Bb how I fall, that's not even how they keep F score
And I think we're Gm brave, 'cause we gave up the game and we're choosing the Eb high road

Bb We get so dang hard on us, it's F time to feel okay
Eb Today could be a different kind of day Eb

[Outro] Bb F Gm Bb F (X5)
